Support Your Festival

The Amelia Island Chamber Music Festival has been presenting the world's greatest artists and providing music education for promising young students since our founding in 2001. We have been able to do this thanks to your generous financial support. The largest portion of our annual budget comes from individual donors and corporate sponsors like you. Visit us at www.aicmf.com to learn about the many benefits that are available to you by contributing at our various donor levels. In addition, we are a volunteer-driven organization, and you can support us by putting your skills to work as Festival volunteer. Our website provides complete information on volunteer opportunities and how you can sign up.

To Our Friends and All Music Lovers,

We extend to you a warm welcome to the 19th season of the Amelia Island Chamber Music Festival. Our tradition of presenting great music for nearly two decades continues in 2020 as we bring some of the world's most renowned artists to our stages on beautiful Amelia Island.

Anne-Sophie Mutter, universally heralded as one of the greatest violin virtuosos of the modern era, will make one of her few North American appearances at our inaugural concert in January. She will be followed by such international luminaries as bluegrass and country music legend Ricky Skaggs; the Dover Quartet, our acclaimed quartet-in-residence; piano virtuoso Valentina Lisitsa; superstar violinist Itzhak Perlman; Lynn Harrell, the "Dean of American Cellists;" and Pinchas Zukerman, who reigns as one of today's most sought-after violinists, chamber musicians and conductors. There is no need to travel to New York or London to hear these musical giants. They will all be here on Amelia Island for our joyous 2020 season, further solidifying our position as one of the nation's premier music festivals.

None of this would be possible without the generous support of our corporate and individual donors, who have kept great music playing here since 2001. We extend our heartfelt appreciation for your abiding support. We also thank our many volunteers, whose dedicated efforts behind the scenes transform our plans into the Festival you enjoy.

Again, welcome to our 19th season, which promises to be our best yet. We look forward to seeing you in January!

Sincerely,
 Christopher Rex
 General and Artistic Director

Christopher Rex

2020 Ticketing Specials

Performance dates and times are subject to change. Please visit www.aicmf.com for the latest information. Tickets for all concerts are available online or by calling 904-261-1779.

You will receive a 20% discount on a season ticket purchase. Quartet No. 9 in E-flat major, Op. 117... Shostakovich

Sextet in A major, Op. 48...Dvorak

Our Quartet-in-Residence, the Dover catapulted to international stardom following a stunning sweep of the 2013 Banff Competition. The first-ever quartet-in-residence of the Kennedy Center and recipient of the coveted Avery Fisher Career Grant, the Dover has become one of the most in-demand ensembles in the world. The quartet's distinctive sound has helped confirm its status as "the young American string quartet of the moment" (New Yorker). The Dover is quartet-in-residence for the Bienen School of Music at Northwestern University, Chamber Music Northwest, Artosphere and Peoples' Symphony in New York. The ensemble will make over 100 North American appearances during the current season. For the Dvorak sextet, the Dover will be joined by cellists Roberto Diaz—president and CEO of the Curtis Institute of Music and former principal cellist of the Philadelphia Orchestra—and Christopher Rex, the Festival's artistic and general director.

With a celebrated career spanning five decades, Pinchas Zukerman reigns as one of today's most sought-after and versatile musicians as a violin and viola soloist, conductor and chamber musician. A renowned virtuoso admired for the expressive lyricism, beauty of tone, and impeccable musicianship, he can be heard on more than 100 albums. Mr. Zukerman, along with cellist Amanda Forsyth and pianist Angela Cheng, began offering trio repertoire in 2011. Invitations from major festivals and venues led to the launch of the Zukerman Trio two years later. Since then, the trip has traveled around the globe and performed at such major festivals as Ravinia, the BBC Proms, Edinburgh, Verbier, and Bravo! Vail.

Music Education and Special Programs

Music education has been a core mission of the Amelia Island Chamber Music Festival since our inception 19 years ago.

- The second annual Spring Institute, our premier training program for young artists, will be held June 2 - 6 2020. The Beth Newdome Fellowship Artists, composed of promising students from the nation's leading conservatories, will be mentored by professional musicians, culminating in a series of public performances, most of which will be free.
- The acclaimed Dover Quartet, our quartet-in-residence, conducts a free master class each season for young artists from Jacksonville-area schools and universities
- We have joined with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Nassau County in holding a five-day-a-week Strings Education Program. Instruments are provided and there is no cost to the students.
- Making concerts readily available to students is made possible through a variety of ticket discount programs.

Other special programs and activities include:

- Legacy Giving
Our planned giving program and endowment, Foundation for the Future, enables music lovers to make an investment in the Festival's future, ensuring that we will continue to offer renowned performances and educational programs for generations to come. For complete information, contact Dr. Joe Marasco, our executive director, at 904/556-5351 or visit www.aicmf.com and click on the Support tab.
- Speakers Bureau
Our Speakers Bureau provides information to community groups about the Festival's development into one of the nation's foremost musical events. We also explore the Judeo-Christian roots of Western music with an emphasis on chamber music. For more information and to schedule a speaker, contact Dr. Joe Marasco at joe@aicmf.com or call 904/556-5351.

Young Patrons: Join the party!

Dynamic young adults between 21 and 50, with a love of music and a desire to mingle and network, can enjoy a discounted ticket to a concert, preceded or followed by a party, for an all-inclusive price! The program was launched last year by a group of local women at a party preceding the Wynton Marsalis concert. The Young Patrons have planned an exciting 2020 season, including "A Musical Carnival for Children of All Ages" on Saturday, February 1. Their second event is a wine and beer party, compliments of the Ritz Carlton Amelia Island in the lobby bar of the Ritz prior to the Season Finale Celebration starring the Zukerman Trio. Included in the ticket price is a special hotel rate: 20% off dinner and $239 for an overnight stay.

For more information, visit www.aicmf.com or call 904 261-1779.

AI AMELIA ISLAND DF DANCE FESTIVAL

April 16-19
2020

www.ameliaislanddancefestival.org

Amelia Island Dance Festival endeavors to bring the joy and artistry of dance to historic Amelia Island through the professional presentation of the best in classical and contemporary dance. Our performances showcase talent from across the country, and the finest from local dance institutions of Northeast Florida.

You are welcome here!
